Message From The President Brad Jones

Hi - My name is Brad Jones, and I'll be taking over Barker's role in the club. First, I want to thank Barker for his guidance during the past few years. It wasn't easy to deal with all the challenges of scheduling a public event like the Charlotte radio meet, but he was able to keep us moving in the right direction and the show has continued to grow! I will try to keep that momentum going and welcome any comments or suggestions from folks attending. All of the board members discuss that feedback as we plan for the next year, so let us know what you think we can improve. Thanks for attending the best radio event in the southeast, and next year we hope you'll bring a friend!

Brad

I would like to welcome everyone to the Antique Radio & Phonograph Conference Charlotte.

Auction Guidelines

FRIDAY, MARCH 22TH
7PM IN MR A, B & C

IN GENERAL

- CC-AWA makes no claims as to the ownership, authenticity or operating condition of any goods put up for sale. WHAT YOU SEE IS WHAT YOU GET.
- You must be registered for this CCAWA annual conference in order to participate as a buyer or seller.
- It is our intention to have volunteers on duty at all times that the auction preview room is unlocked. However; the hotel or the organizers of this conference will not be held liable for theft, loss or damages to property consigned for this auction.
- The Friday evening auction will be limited to 10 items per person. You are advised to get your items consigned as early as possible.
- We hope to have the auction room open from 2-5 pm on Friday so items can be entered until the auction cutoff time of 5 pm.
- The Auction is scheduled to start at 7 pm Friday evening.
- CCAWA charges the seller a 10% commission to help to defray costs of this conference. There is no buyer premium.

HOW TO CONSIGN AN ITEM FOR AUCTION

- Each attendee may consign up to 10 lots brought to check-in on Friday after 2pm that, in the opinion of the auction staff, each lot will sell for $35 or more. Write the minimum bid on the white copy only.
- The auction committee reserves the right to refuse any lots for the auction.
- Your item (or box lot) must have a reasonable expectation of bringing a closing bid of at least $35 in order to consign to the Friday auction. Note: We have a $35 Minimum.
- Auction cards will not be given out until the auction staff has been given the chance to see your auction items.
- Fill out the card and keep the bottom PINK sheet for yourself as proof of ownership should the item not make a minimum bid that you may elect to place on the item.
- We have drafting tape available for you to hold the YELLOW sheet to your item. If that does not work, we have string tags that you can staple to the YELLOW sheet so that the sheet will hang from the item.

- Give the top WHITE sheet(s) to the volunteer that places your items into the auction preview area. They will check to see that the form is filled out correctly.

PAYMENT

- The CC-AWA does NOT accept credit or debit cards, nor other electronic transactions. We only accept cash and good checks. However, it is at the sole discretion of the auction team whether to accept a check.
- If you are not known by the auction team and wish to make payment by check or travelers checks, you must notify us in advance and receive acknowledgment that the cashier will accept your payment method.
